BASIS

The request for consent is based on the provisions of the EU General Data Protection Regulation (EU 2016/679, GDPR) on the processing of personal data. In addition, the Act on the Openness of Government Activities (621/1999) contains provisions on confidentiality obligations. According to chapter 6, section 24, subsection 1, paragraph 24 of the Act, documents concerning the need for international protection, the conditions for the entry of a foreigner and their right of residence in the country or the grounds thereto, the acquisition or loss of Finnish citizenship or the determination of citizenship status are confidential if it is not obvious that the provision of information does not endanger the safety of the party concerned or their family members. In addition, documents containing information on the person's political beliefs or opinions expressed by the person in the private sphere or information on the person's lifestyle, participation in associations or leisure activities, family life or other comparable personal circumstances are confidential under the same Act (chapter 6, section 24, subsection 1, paragraph 32). An authority may provide information on a confidential document if the person concerned consents to it (chapter 7, section 26, subsection 1, paragraph 2 and section 29, subsection 1, paragraph 2 of the Act).

The aid granted to the employer participating in the service pilot for the Growth from international experts relocation services is de minimis aid. The ELY Centre for Southwest Finland is obliged to compile, save and store all information and documents concerning the application of the de minimis Regulation for a period of ten tax years from the date on which the aid was granted. The aid is granted in accordance with Commission Regulation (EU) No 1407/2013 of 18 December 2013 on the application of Articles 107 and 108 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union to de minimis aid. (Published in OJ L 352, 24.12.2013). Under the Act on the Financing of Regional Development and Structural Fund Projects (8/2014), the Ministry of Economic Affairs and Employment, the Centres for Economic Development, Transport and the Environment, Regional Councils and other intermediate bodies as well as the audit authority have the right, notwithstanding confidentiality provisions, to hand over to other authorities or persons performing public duties, or an institution of the European Union, information received in the performance of a task laid down in this Act concerning the beneficiary necessary for the performance of an audit task assigned to an authority or a party discharging a public duty or a body or for the purpose of monitoring compliance with European Union law. (Chapter 3, section 28, subsection 3 of the Act on the Financing of Regional Development and Structural Fund Projects).
